Seed Corn.

We have for sale a limited amount of tested and guaranteed seed corn grown in Adair County. We are not buying nor selling this seed for ourselves, but for accommodation of those who need good seed and for the benefit of our farmers who are so fortunate as to have some to spare, we are acting as medium of distribution, that we may do our "bit" to win the war.

L. E. Young in the corner of the Jeffries Hotel will examine your eyes free, and fit your glasses at lowest professional charges.

Red Cross Meeting.

At the court house on the 1st Monday in April, all Red Cross members and all those interested in Red Cross work will please attend and help to set on foot a drive to increase our membership to what is expected of Adair county. It is desired that reports of all work done be made and plans be formed for future work. This should be a largely attended meeting and will not be unless every member assists in making it so.

Let us show our individual interest and make our aim a success.

Mrs. R. F. Rowe, Secy.

Probably Erect Three Business Houses.

While in Campbellsville, a few days ago, a representative of the News was informed by Mr. Vance Gowdy that he would more than likely erect three business houses on his lot in Columbia this year, one for his wholesale house, the other two would be for rent. He will put up brick buildings if he can find some local man to burn a kilo. Mr. Gowdy's lot is just below the Buchanan Lyon Co. building, fronting the pike. A good location for business houses.

FOR SALE—Some high grade seed corn, "Butler" and "Red Cob" varieties. Germination test by Kentucky Agricultural and Experiment Station, 85 per cent. J. Z. Conover, Joppa, Ky.

Died at Merrimac.

Mrs. Susan Pruett, who was the wife of J. W. Pruett, and the mother of J. G. Pruett, who is one of the firm of Taylor, Pruett & Jarvis, Campbellsville, died at her late home in Merrimac, last Tuesday afternoon. She was a very estimable lady, one who enjoyed the respect of every body in the neighborhood. The funeral services were held Wednesday, and were largely attended. The deceased was about sixty-eight years old, and was sick but a short time.

From Louisville, Ky.

March 20th, 1918.
Mr. Barksdale Hamlett,
Editor Adair Co News,
Columbia, Ky.

Dear Sir:—

I write this letter to thank you for your kindness to our representative Carl W. Harvey, during the time he was in your district, in the interest of Salvation Army Work.

I can assure you this is very much appreciated. God bless you.

Yours faithfully,
Fred Laddow,
Ensign.

Accidentally Killed in Texas.

News has just reached here of the shocking death of Job F. Smith, which recently occurred at Honey Grove, Texas. He was at work in a cotton gin, and was caught by the line shaft or by a belt and was literally torn to pieces. The deceased was born and reared in this county, three miles out on the Campbellsville pike, and was a grandson of Job Sharp and a nephew of John D. Sharp, who lives at Amandaville. Mr. Smith was a prominent citizen of Honey Grove, the entire city attending his funeral.

Read This,

It is time now to think of what good and useful things you will do this coming summer. Time now to prepare for more and better fruit and more vegetables that are adapted for canning, drying and preserving. We must first plant, cultivate and grow them, and this is our present duty and privilege. The food that is saved by this means, while it may appear to be of no great importance to the individual who sees only his own output, is in the aggregate of immense proportions. Our brave soldiers in France use an expression, "Can the Kaiser," meaning that they hope to get the German autocrat on the run this year. Every farm family by storing food in the ways indicated will have a part in the discomfiture of that foremost enemy of human liberty.

Bank Changes Hands.

The banking business of James town has gone into the hands of a new set of officers. Judge W. W. Jones and Mr. R. F. Paul, who owned a considerable amount of stock and a number of other gentlemen who were interested, have sold their stock and transferred the business to a new set of men. The new organization elected Mr. R. E. Lloyd, President, and Mr. J. N. Meadows, cashier. The good will of the old owners went to the new stockholders. Messrs. W. S. Knight and Mr. Walter McKinney who were Cashier and Assistant cashier of the old bank, will remain with the new corporation for a short time.

Died in Colorado.

Mr. Charlie Harden, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harden, who was a soldier, died in Colorado, March 15th. His remains were brought to this county and laid to rest in the Tabernacle cemetery, March 21st. He was neatly attired in a sailor uniform of blue, placed in a beautiful coffin. He was a young man 25 years of age. He confessed his faith in Christ several years ago. The funeral services were conducted by Eld. Luther Young. He volunteered last June and joined the navy and served a soldier's life until about two months ago he was taken with tuberculosis. He leaves father, mother, brothers and sisters to mourn their loss. There were many sympathizers attended the funeral and burial.

For the boys in khaki

Bevo

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Cantrens, where none but good soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee line for Bevo. They know that there lies complete satisfaction, full refreshment and pure wholesomeness.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with much to do, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making Bevo a common soft drink.

You will find Bevo in restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, places, grounds, baseball parks, city hallmans, dining cars, in the navy, at cantrens, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

Bevo—the all-year-round soft drink

Guard against substitutes. Have the bottle opened in front of you, first seeing that the seal is unbroken and that the crown top bears the Fox. Sold in bottles only, and bottled exclusively by
